How the Air-Power Cars Have Become a Nuisance.

The black lines in the tracks in the above picture, which is a reproduction of a photograph taken by the Journal at the Fourth avenue crossing of the Twenty-eighth street line, show the trail of filth which the cars leave. This soils the dresses of women who cross the tracks and fills the neighborhood with a nauseating odor.

wheel almost as teadily as a steam launch, silver and hers golden. He would talk to her about the greatness of their family before the Revolution, and she often addressed him playfully as "M. le Comte," for that was his title in the Old World.

In the Winter he and his wife kept a boarding house for well-to-do French people in Central Park West. In the Summer they occupied Fern Lake House, at Park Raiser, and at once proceeded toward the Raiser, and the first thing to be done is to get the cattle. Ranchmen by the scores have of forget them to us at prices which will enable us to compete with the trust. This is important, for without the cattle our efforts would amount to nothing. The packing plant is easy. There are twenty places already in yiew and we have them to select from. We know the methods of the meat trust, but this not the first fine we have entered into a fight and won it.

HEALING SERVICE IN NYACK TABERNACLE.

Members of the Christian Alliance Join in Prayer for the Healing of the Sick.

Nyack, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Increased interest marked the Christian Aillance Convention on Nyack Helghts to-day. Dr. Simpson preached a secmon on "The Power of the Holy Ghost" at the 11 s. m. meeting.

In the afternoon three hundred children from Dr Louis Klopsch's Christian Herald. Children's Home marched to the meeting and were addressed by Dr. Hury Wilson, of Nw eVork.

A divine healing service was held at 5 p. m. in Berachah Home, where there are a number of invalids who have come to be healed through prayer.

A T our next meeting we shall begin work of operating our own slaughter house will begin. We shall have $2,000,000 subscribed, and while we want $5,000,000. It think $2,000,000 is pretty good for a start."

These were the words of President Louis Wagner, of the Retail Butchers' Association, yesterday to a Journal reprier.

The meeting referred to was to have been held last night, but since many of the retail butchers are of the Jewish faith, it

Save This and Wait Until TO-MORROW MORNING at 10 o'Clock. Bring This With You.

Great sale at 10 A. M. to-morrow at Brown, King & Co., 177 and 179 Broadway, near Cortlandt st. Five wholesale clothing houses have con-solidated their surplus stocks of fine Suits, Fall and Winter Overcoats and Trousers for men and youths, and will offer the entire assortment at retail for twenty days only at thirty-thre mark, gaining probably two lengths on stock consists of the very best cloth mark, gaining probably two lengths on his close turn.

From the mark home it was a run before the wind. Columbia's spinnaker and balloon lib were set just after she rounded the flag, and she pulled away fast until Defender got around and set the same sails. Both travelled at a ten knot gailin a breeze that was freshening steadily, and to Defender's advantage, as she caught it first, when it came faster. On the ten mile run in. Columbia's gain was very small. 32 seconds, but it was a gain nevertheless. It seemed to an observer that Captain Rhodes's spinnaker and big balloon drew better than did Captain Barr's.

Stock consists of the very best clothing ever made in this country, and it will be sold at retail for twenty didays for one-third cost of making! "Too many goods on hand" is the reason for this wonderful sale. Manufacturers must have cash. This is an honest sacrifice of goods by first-class, reliable manufacturers, who have made up more clothing than they can sell, and consequently close out this "surplus" at an enormous loss for ready money. The firms who furnish these goods for sale stand among HART TO PRAINING.
